Hillary Roberts specialises in private equity and corporate M&A transactions, equity investments and corporate restructurings, working regularly with international private equity houses and investment firms.

Hillary advises clients both in Denmark and internationally on a range of complex cross-border acquisitions, divestitures, joint ventures, minority investments, carve-outs and corporate restructurings. With over ten years' experience working on corporate transactions, she has developed a particular focus on private equity and financial sponsor transactions during the past seven years.

Hillary always seeks to provide clients with succinct, commercial and pragmatic advice, tailored to the context of each situation.
