

Kristine Stage Mikkelsen

Senior Associate, Advokat (Aarhus)

Kristine Stage Mikkelsen advises on public procurement law and public law in general.

Kristine is an experienced adviser on all procurement law aspects, from the initial strategic considerations and preparation of tender documents and evaluation reports to filing of complaints.

She represents both contracting authorities and tenderers and has particular experience in relation to tenders for consulting services in the construction industry.

Kristine has also assisted numerous clients in cases involving access to files, both clients seeking access and clients responding to requests for access.
