Maja Rosenkrantz Sørensen specialises in insolvency law. She is primarily engaged in the administration of bankruptcy estates and protection of creditor interests, handling avoidance and disqualification proceedings and advising on bankruptcy procedures.

Maja has been handling a variety of bankrupt businesses, including within real-estate administration, trade and manufacturing. She has particular experience in realising mortgaged property, including recovering large portfolios of receivables and completing complicated sales processes. Among other things, Maja has assisted in several business transfers and in selling a large number of rental properties.

Maja is an experienced litigator, particularly in the field of insolvency but also in general commercial law disputes.

Finally, Maja provides general advice and assistance in commercial matters, e.g. the drafting of contracts.
