Practice areas

Energy

M&A

Christopher Dalgas advises on M&A, joint ventures, regulatory and commercial matters in the energy sector.

Christopher advises Danish and international clients in the energy sector on a wide range of matters, particularly in relation to mergers and acquisitions (M&A), regulatory matters, commercial agreements, e.g. corporate power purchase agreements, sale of biogas, guarantees of origin, etc.

In addition to his work as a legal advisor, Christopher serves as Kromann Reumert's energy law knowledge ambassador. As such, Christopher is responsible for promoting the sharing of knowledge of energy law, both internally within our organisation and with the outside world.
