Carina Dall advises Danish and international clients in a broad variety of sectors on all aspects of competition and procurement law.

Specialised in competition law, Carina has extensive experience conducting merger control proceedings, before Danish competition authorities as well as before the European Commission. She has successfully handled cases within all aspects of competition law, i.a. abuse of a dominant position, cartels, criminal investigations, actions for compensation, and actions over distribution systems.

Carina also specialises in public procurement law and has extensive experience conducting procurement processes and complaints actions, both before the Danish Complaints Board for Public Procurement and before Danish courts.

In her work, Carina makes a point of always communicating in an easy-to-understand language. She also takes pride in delivering her advice to you as a client in the manner and format that you prefer. Favouring a commercial and pragmatic approach, she aims to resolve all matters efficiently and achieving long-term value-adding solutions.
