Terese specialises in employment and labour law and assists in particular in investigations conducted for i.a. the Danish State, municipalities and private enterprises.

Terese has been involved in commissions of inquiry, legal inquiries and other investigations and therefore has extensive experience in collecting, reviewing and assessing the relevance of comprehensive material and in preparing and conducting interrogations.

She effectively documents, organises and summarises lengthy and detailed course of events and identifies and classifies relevant legal issues on that basis.

Terese also helps client solve employment and labour law issues in general.
