Hans Jakob Folker heads our corporate criminal law practice group and primarily handles corporate criminal law disputes and internal investigations.

Formerly deputy public prosecutor with the Danish State Prosecutor for Serious Economic and International Crime, Hans Jakob has unique insight into prosecution service work methods, including dawn raids and search & seizures. His clients are primarily major Danish and foreign enterprises, who seek his discerning input into complex legal matters involving international criminal law, corruption, international sanctions, and AML law.

Hans Jakob also advises on matters concerning industrial espionage and internal fraud.

A highly qualified and experienced litigator, Hans Jakob also argues criminal cases in court.
