Nicolai Michel de Voss specialises in insolvency and restructuring, assisting primarily in bankruptcy and restructuring proceedings and insolvency-related disputes, particularly avoidance disputes.

Nicolai is recognised for his expertise in, among other things, securing and selling the assets of bankrupt companies, handling ongoing contractual matters and communicating with the company's creditors and former management.

He also assists in safeguarding creditors' interests and handling various insolvency-related disputes, including disputes over avoidance, compensation and disqualification proceedings.

Lastly, Nicolai works with compulsory dissolution, advising on the full spectrum of company law issues arising in that connection, including issues of resumption of business and the liquidation of undertakings.
