

Gustav Ottesen

Assistant Associate, Advokatfuldmægtig (Copenhagen)

Gustav Ottesen advises Danish and international companies on business and corporate law matters.

Gustav deals mainly with domestic and cross-border M&A transactions, including due diligence and drafting of corporate documents. He also advises on general corporate and capital markets law, including IPOs and incentive programmes.

He has previously worked in competition and public procurement law and therefore also draws on these competences in his daily work.
