

Birgitte Toxværd

Partner (Copenhagen)

Birgitte Toxværd has over 20 years of experience in data protection law and is one of the leading advisers in Denmark.

Birgitte advises clients on all aspects of data protection, from individual processing assignments to large compliance projects. Her advice and assistance include identifying the need for use of personal data, analysing how the data may be used and, together with the client, planning the practical implementation of the required measures.

She has significant experience and in-depth knowledge of providing advice to both private and public enterprises, particularly within the financial sector (banks, insurance companies, trust companies, etc.), the media industry (production companies and broadcasters, etc.), pharmaceutical companies and public utilities, all of which are positioned at the intersection between data protection law and extensive sectoral legislation.
